These items need to be checked off by the Principal Occupant

- No one staying in the unit is a convicted Felons.
- Principal Occupant will call the Condo Owner (or the Rental Agency) with any problems or questions that they have with the unit, its furnishings or utilities, and will not refer these issues to the Association's Manager or the Employees, who are not authorized to manage these aspects of the unit.
- That, it is understood that the Association has authority to take whatever action is necessary, including eviction, for violations as set forth in the Florida Condominium Act, our By-Laws, Declaration and various Rules and Regulations. These are available from the owner.
- It is mandatory that the Principal Occupant checks in with the Condo Manager on the day of arrival or no later than the next weekday morning. Her office is on the Ground Floor Lobby area.

When the owner will not be present, the Vanderbilt Yacht & Racquet Club Condominium Association requires owners obtain the above information for all Rental, Family and Guest occupancy. Both the owner and Principal Occupant need to sign and submit this Application to the VYRC Manager at least 20 days before the first day of occupancy with a $100 application fee for Renters and Guests, and 10 days and no fee for Family. Failure to submit the application and fee within these deadlines could result in a delay or denial of occupancy. This Application is for the owner to acknowledge that these occupants have permission to use their unit for the dates designated. The information is also used for the safety of these occupants, other VYRC residents, Fire officials and Associations Records. VYRC reserves the right to do Back Ground checks on Applicants.
